headboard without the railing!

Step 1

Attach the left metal rail (A) and right metal rail (B) together, making sure to line up the holes.

Step 2

Line up the metal connector (D) with the holes on the rails and secure with the M6*12 MM bolts (3).

Step 3

Use a Phillips head screwdriver to secure the seat.

Drill Bit Tip: Use a 1/4" drill bit when drilling the holes to accommodate the provided wall anchors.

Step 4

Hang straps (C) from metal rail by snapping top buttons.

Step 5

Match the Velcro straps between panels and straps and press the headboard piece (E) to the straps.

Step 6

Line the bottom holes on the straps to 715 mm apart on the rail and mark holes on the wall. Then, insert wall anchors and then screws into anchors through the strap holes.

Drill Bit Tip: Use a 1/4" drill bit when drilling the holes to accommodate the provided wall anchors.

Step 7

Last but not least, flip the panels up, undo top buttons, and then fasten Velcro and top button on the front of the panels.

Installation option 2: without rails

Step 1

Let's get this thing fired up! Arrange the straps (C) on the walls where you want your headboard to go, making sure the outer straps are 715 mm apart from the middle straps. Make sure the two middle straps are 200 mm apart. Then, secure the wall anchors (1) and metal piece (5) using the M4*35mm Screw (2).

Drill Bit Tip: Use a 1/4" drill bit when drilling the holes to accommodate the provided wall anchors.

Step 2

Screw on the rest of the wall anchors (1) to the straps. You're doing great!

Drill Bit Tip: Use a 1/4" drill bit when drilling the holes to accommodate the provided wall anchors.

Step 3

Match the Velcro straps between the panels and straps and press the headboard piece (E) to the straps.

Step 4

Flip panels up, undo top button, and then fasten Velcro and top button of top panel.
