ABOUT

Gather round the better campfire with the Tucson Outdoor Fire Table from Crosley. Constructed from a sturdy powder-coated steel frame and beautifully tiled stone top, this rugged firepit is ready to become the centerpiece for any outdoor hearth. The simple controls are hidden inside the lattice frame doors, and a sliding base provides easy access to your propane tank. Enjoy 360 degree views of fireside warmth in any season, or safely hide it away with included table and tank covers.
